THE LATEST NUMBERS: NEW TARIFFS HITTING PENNSYLVANIA ECONOMY HARD

- According to the most recent data, Pennsylvania businesses have paid an extra $597 million in import taxes on products subject to Trump Administration tariffs, including $66 million in April.
- Tariffs on China "List 3" goods, which accounted for $272 million of the new taxes paid to date, jumped from 10% to 25% on May 10. Pennsylvania imported $7.2 billion of "List 4" products in 2018, which could face new tariffs up to 25% soon.
- Since the trade war began, Pennsylvania exports have faced $357 million in new retaliatory tariffs from our trading partners, including $40 million in April. These tariffs make Pennsylvania less competitive.

President Trump should successfully negotiate with our trading partners and end these costly and harmful tariffs. Pennsylvania jobs are on the line.
